GRREC Office & Training Facility • 230 Technology Way • Bowling Green 42101

GRREC is pleased to offer a one-day opportunity for high school students, parents, business leaders, community members, professionals, career/technical educators, high school educators and school/district level administrators interested in learning more about postsecondary readiness from experts, while meeting with others to network, share ideas, and connect new information to student – or – school needs related to achieving postsecondary readiness.

The one-day event will feature a lunch and learn session with Commissioner Pruitt as he shares that ALL students deserve opportunities to find their passion as they prepare for successful transition to life after high school. Dr. Stephen Pruitt has an extensive background in education at the local, state and national levels, and he currently serves on the Board of Directors for the national Council for Chief State School Officers. Dr. Pruitt started as a high school chemistry teacher and worked his way to chief of staff for the Georgia Department of Education. Prior to coming to Kentucky, he served as senior vice president for Achieve, Inc., a national, nonpartisan, nonprofit education reform organization.

✓ Academic-ready

✓ Technical-ready

✓ Military-ready

Throughout the day, engaging breakout sessions will provide participants an opportunity to learn more about the significance of exploring/identifying career pathways, maximizing financial aid/scholarships, taking full advantage of advanced/dual credit opportunities, preparing for college entrance exams and interpreting the score report (i.e. ACT, KYOTE), the value of KOSSA and Industry Certifications, benefits of the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB), and the impact Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) will have on preparing students for success in both college and career. Participants will leave each session with ideas, actions, and resources that will support the promotion of equity, achievement and integrity for ALL students across the Commonwealth.
